

Liberation in a Police State: A Series on Policing and Resistance in Chicago

Series Schedule

Tuesdays & Thursdays 11:00a - 12:30p

Tuesday, October 29: Reducing Violence Without Police

Thursday, October 31: Police Torture and Justice in Chicago

Thursday, November 7: Homan Square/Freedom Square

Events October 29 through November 7 will take place at the African American Cultural Center (Addams Hall, 830 S. Halsted St.)

Thursday, November 21: Police Accountability and Community Control

Tuesday, November 26: Resisting Police Repression

Events November 21 through November 26 will take place at the Rafael Cintrón Ortiz Latino Cultural Center (803 S. Morgan St.)

Tuesday, December 3: Transformative Justice

Event will take place at Gallery 400 Lecture Room (400 S. Peoria St.)

Everyone Welcome!

*Communities of color in Chicago are building powerful social movements and inspiring transformative justice projects to resist criminalization, deportation, and surveillance by the Chicago police, federal immigration authorities, and national security agencies. This speaker series brings representatives of these movements to UIC to discuss their work and their goals. It will also introduce students to possibilities for plugging in to existing projects and campaigns.

presented by:

AFRICAN AMERICAN STUDIES COLLEGE OF LIBERAL ARTS AND SCIENCES

LATIN AMERICAN AND LATINO STUDIES COLLEGE OF LIBERAL ARTS AND SCIENCES

SOCIOLOGY COLLEGE OF LIBERAL ARTS AND SCIENCES

CRIMINOLOGY LAW AND JUSTICE COLLEGE OF LIBERAL ARTS AND SCIENCES

GENDER AND WOMEN'S STUDIES COLLEGE OF LIBERAL ARTS AND SCIENCES

Gallery 400

Social Justice Initiative

Rafael Cintrón Ortiz Latino Cultural Center

African-American Cultural Center

Institute for Research on Race and Public Policy